Presented by the Guildford School of Acting
 Music and Lyrics by Stephen Sondheim
 Written and devised by James Lapine

An adult fairy-tale which out-Grimms the Grimms in its book and out-Disneys Disney with its music. Its final message 'no-one is alone' echoes through the darkness of the woods where we confront our demons. Pulitzer prize-winners Sondheim and Lapine have created a richly melodic score and a powerfully moving story.

Friday 5

SoundPaint: From the Ground Up

6.15pm – 7.30pm
 Free
 PATS Foyer /
 University of Surrey

Derek Shiel (artist) and Julia Usher (composer) offer a foretaste of their active installation (see Monday 8 March, PATS Foyer). SoundPaint combines painting and music at the moment of creation. The lecture will include unusual questions about our perception of time; about synaesthesia, the rhythm of painting and the colour of music. The artists will demonstrate some of their techniques.

Saturday 6

Madam Butterfly by Giacomo Puccini

7.30pm
 £5.50 £10 £12
 Guildford Civic

Sung in English

Opera South East and the Brandenburg Sinfonia Orchestra make their touring debut at the Guildford Civic with one of the most popular and best loved operas of all time. Madam Butterfly is full of some of Puccini's most inspired music and it is a must for first-timers or seasoned opera-goers alike. The talented professional cast includes Jaqueline Varsey in the title role, Andre Friedoff and Guy Harbottle.

Monday 8

SoundPaint: From the Ground Up

You are invited to visit the active installation at any time during the day. Between 1.15 – 1.45pm and 6.15 – 7.15pm there will be "performances" / periods of particularly intense activity.
 Free
 PATS Foyer /
 University of Surrey

Come and look over the artist's shoulder as he works. But keep your ears open too; the painting is being shaped by music; the brushstrokes are hewing out the sound. SoundPaint is an unfamiliar interaction between painting in progress and music as improvisation at the very moment of creation. In this active installation, Derek Shiel (artist) and Julia Usher (composer) explore a two-way influence between rhythm, attack, colour, mood and, above all, emotion.

Tuesday 9

Classical Road Show presents Zambesi Tales
