Join us to sing three masterpieces: Handel's stirring Zadok the Priest, John Rutter's beautiful anthem Gaelic Blessing and the last movement of Morten Lauridsen's Lux Aeterna. Lauridsen has moved the hearts of many with his carol O magnum mysterium and this music is in the same vein – truly some of the most beautiful you will ever hear!

Requirements to join the day are a love of singing and choral music, and £15! What you will receive in return is the hire of the scores, tea and/or coffee, homemade soup and a ploughman's, the company of others who enjoy singing and a day of music led by our Music Director, Jeremy Backhouse.

Jeremy is equally at home with Renaissance music through to contemporary commissions and is widely recognised as one of Britain's leading choral conductors. As well as conducting the Vivace Chorus, he also conducts the award-winning chamber choir, the Vasari Singers. The venue is the impressive Normandy Village Hall (completed 2003), which is light and spacious and has plenty of parking space.
