Accountants sponsor concert in aid of hospice

GUILDFORD chartered accountants, Moore Stephens, are supporting Chase in its proposed new children's hospice, Christopher's, to be built at Artington.

On Saturday, May 29, Moore Stephens will sponsor a concert to be given at Guildford Cathedral by the Guildford Philharmonic Choir and Surrey Mozart Players in aid of Chase.

Tickets are available from Guildford Civic on 01483 444555.

Peter Harrow, a partner at chartered accountants Moore Stephens, pledges support for the proposed new children's hospice at Artington with a handshake with the assistant appeals coordinator for Chase, Dan Rowles.
