

Concert raises £6,000

THE audience must have appreciated Guildford Philharmonic Choir's performance of the Faure Requiem at the cathedral – they donated a total of £6,000 at the concert towards the Chase appeal for Christopher's, the children's hospice to be built at Artington.

The concert was sponsored by chartered accountants Moore Stephens, and Surrey Mozart Players waived their performance fee.

Pictured are, from the left, Dan Rowles, appeals co-ordinator for Chase, Peter Harrow, a partner with Moore Stephens, and Dr John Trigg, chairman of the Guildford Philharmonic Choir.