

Surrey Brass will join Vivace Chorus to perform a concert in aid of Shooting Star Chase Children's Hospice Care on October 10.

Band chases funds for hospice

SOME of the county's most talented young musicians will play in a special concert to raise money for Shooting Star Chase Children's Hospice Care on Saturday October 10.

The concert, at Holy Trinity Church, Guildford, features Surrey Advanced Brass, whose members come from across Surrey and who most recently performed at Magna Carta celebrations at the start of the summer.

Conductor Mike Chapple said: "We are really delighted to be taking part in this concert, which is for such a good cause. It's particularly special for young musicians to help raise money for other young people and we're looking forward to a great night of music and fund-raising."

The young musicians will be joining the Vivace Chorus and their conductor Jeremy Backhouse for a programme of popular music including Aaron Copland's Fanfare for the Common Man, John Rutter's Gloria and excerpts from Carl Orff's Carmina Burana.

All proceeds from the concert will go to Shooting Star Chase Children's Hospice Care.

Tickets are from Guildford TIC on 01483 444334 or from Vivace Chorus on 07958 519 741 and on the door. Prices are £12.50 and £5 for under 16s.
