In brief

Join mayor at festive concert

THE Mayor of Guildford's Christmas concert takes place on Sunday December 13 at Holy Trinity Church, in the High Street, from 7pm.

The concert, organised by the Rotary Club of Guildford, is in its 63rd year and will feature Guildford's Vivace Chorus, led by musical director Jeremy Backhouse, as well as readings by members of the choir.

Along with the usual hymns and carols, the chorus will perform musical arrangements and seasonal works by David Willcocks, John Rutter and Bob Chilcott, and excerpts from Handel's Messiah.

The Mayor of Guildford's Local Distress Fund will be the beneficiary charity. There will also be a retiring collection for the mayor's personal chosen charity SATRO.

Tickets are £10 adults and £6 children under 12, from the tourist information centre, in the High Street or call 01483 444334, or on the door. To book online visit www.visitguildford.com.
