

Voices will be raised with Christmas cheer

HOLY Trinity Church in Guildford plays again a important part the live of the community by hosting two well-loved seasonal concerts.

One of the highlights of the town's season The Mayor of Guildford's Christmas Concert is on Sunday at 7pm.

Now in its 63rd year and organised by the Rotary Club of Guildford, this annual concert will once again feature Guildford's Vivace Chorus under the baton of musical director Jeremy Backhouse, as well as seasonal readings by members of the choir.

Despite the fire at Clandon Park in April this year, its popular Clandon Carol Concert will still be taking place. It moves to the new venue of Holy Trinity Church and will take place on Friday December 18, at 7.30pm.

With readings by Penelope Keith, join the Oxford Singers for their 30th year performing in support for Clandon Park as they herald the festive season. All proceeds from the concert go to the Clandon Park appeal.

Tickets for the Mayor's concert cost £10 adult and £8 for under 12s. Tickets for the Clandon Carol Concert cost £17 for adults; £7 for six to 16 year olds and £41 for a family of two adults and two children. To book and for further details call Guildford Tourist Information Centre on 01483 444334.
