Bernstein : Chichester Psalms
Britten : Rejoice in the Lamb

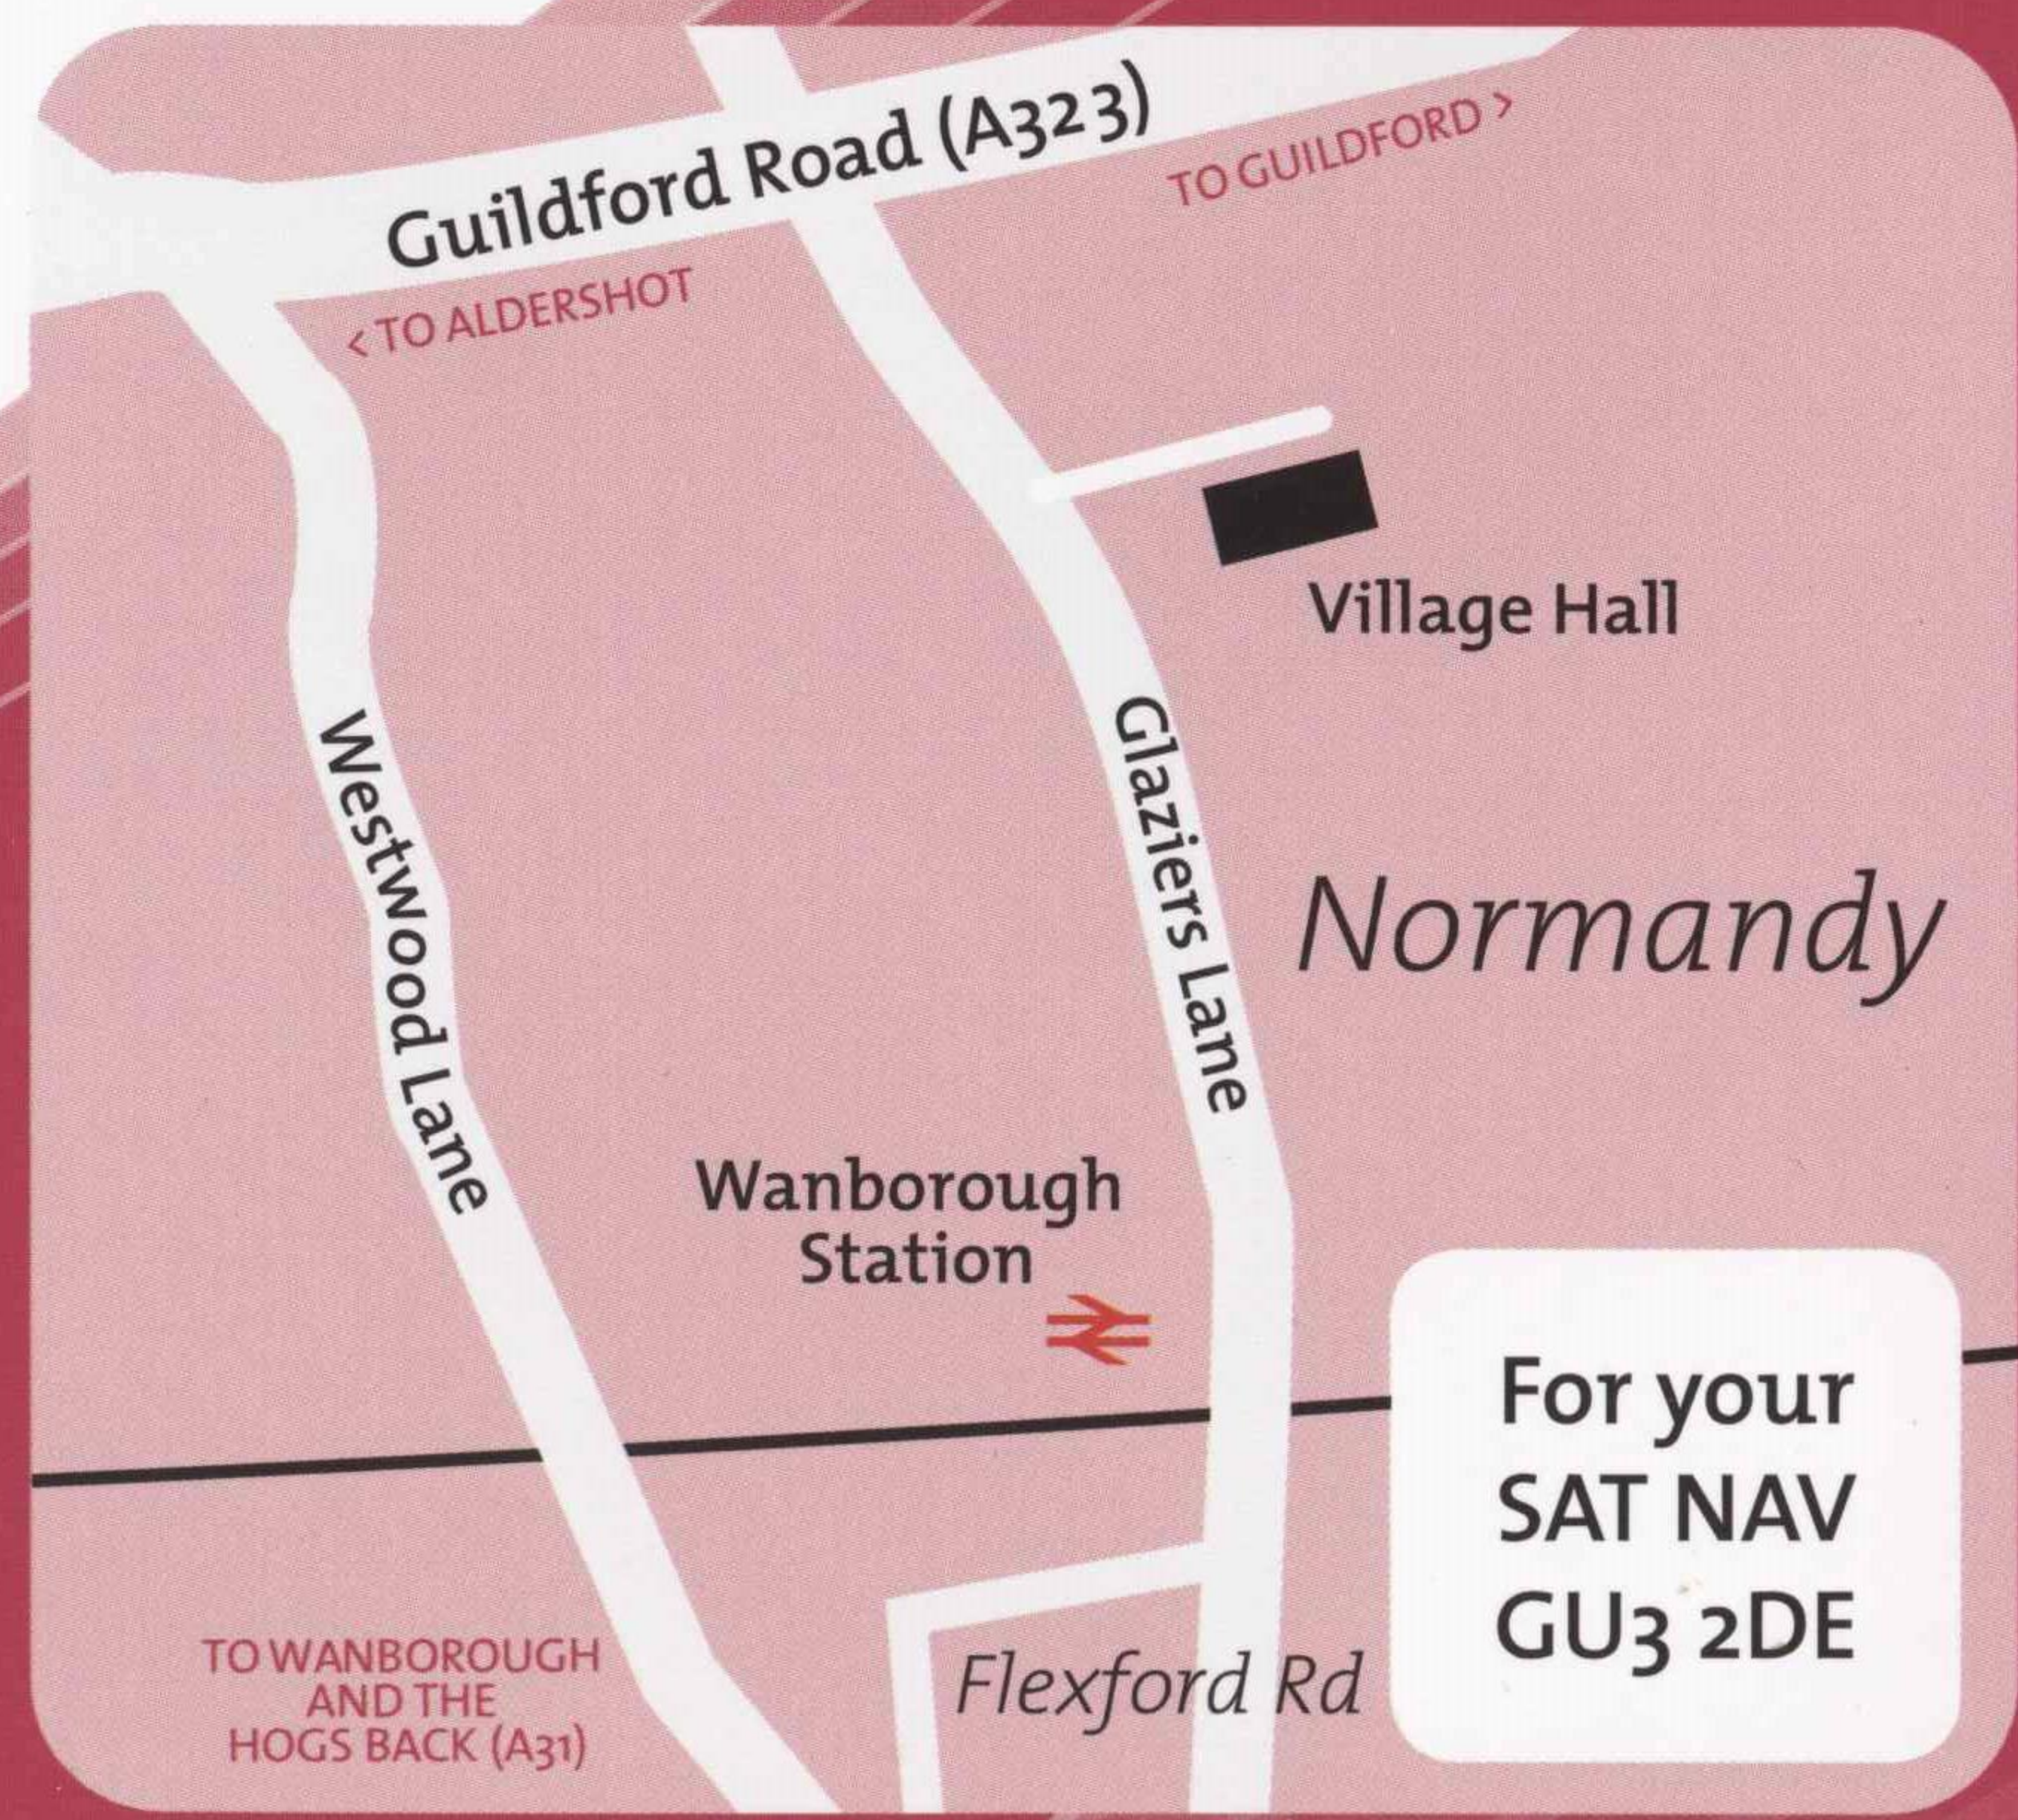

Our Come and Sing days always tackle interesting, beautiful and sometimes challenging works and 2014's is no exception.

Britten's Rejoice in the Lamb is the composer's setting of Jubilate Agno by Christopher Smart, who wrote this ecstatic poem whilst in a lunatic asylum in the 18th century. A wonderful blend of slow, single-note choral writing and fast-paced dance-like passages, it's the perfect piece to get your teeth into.

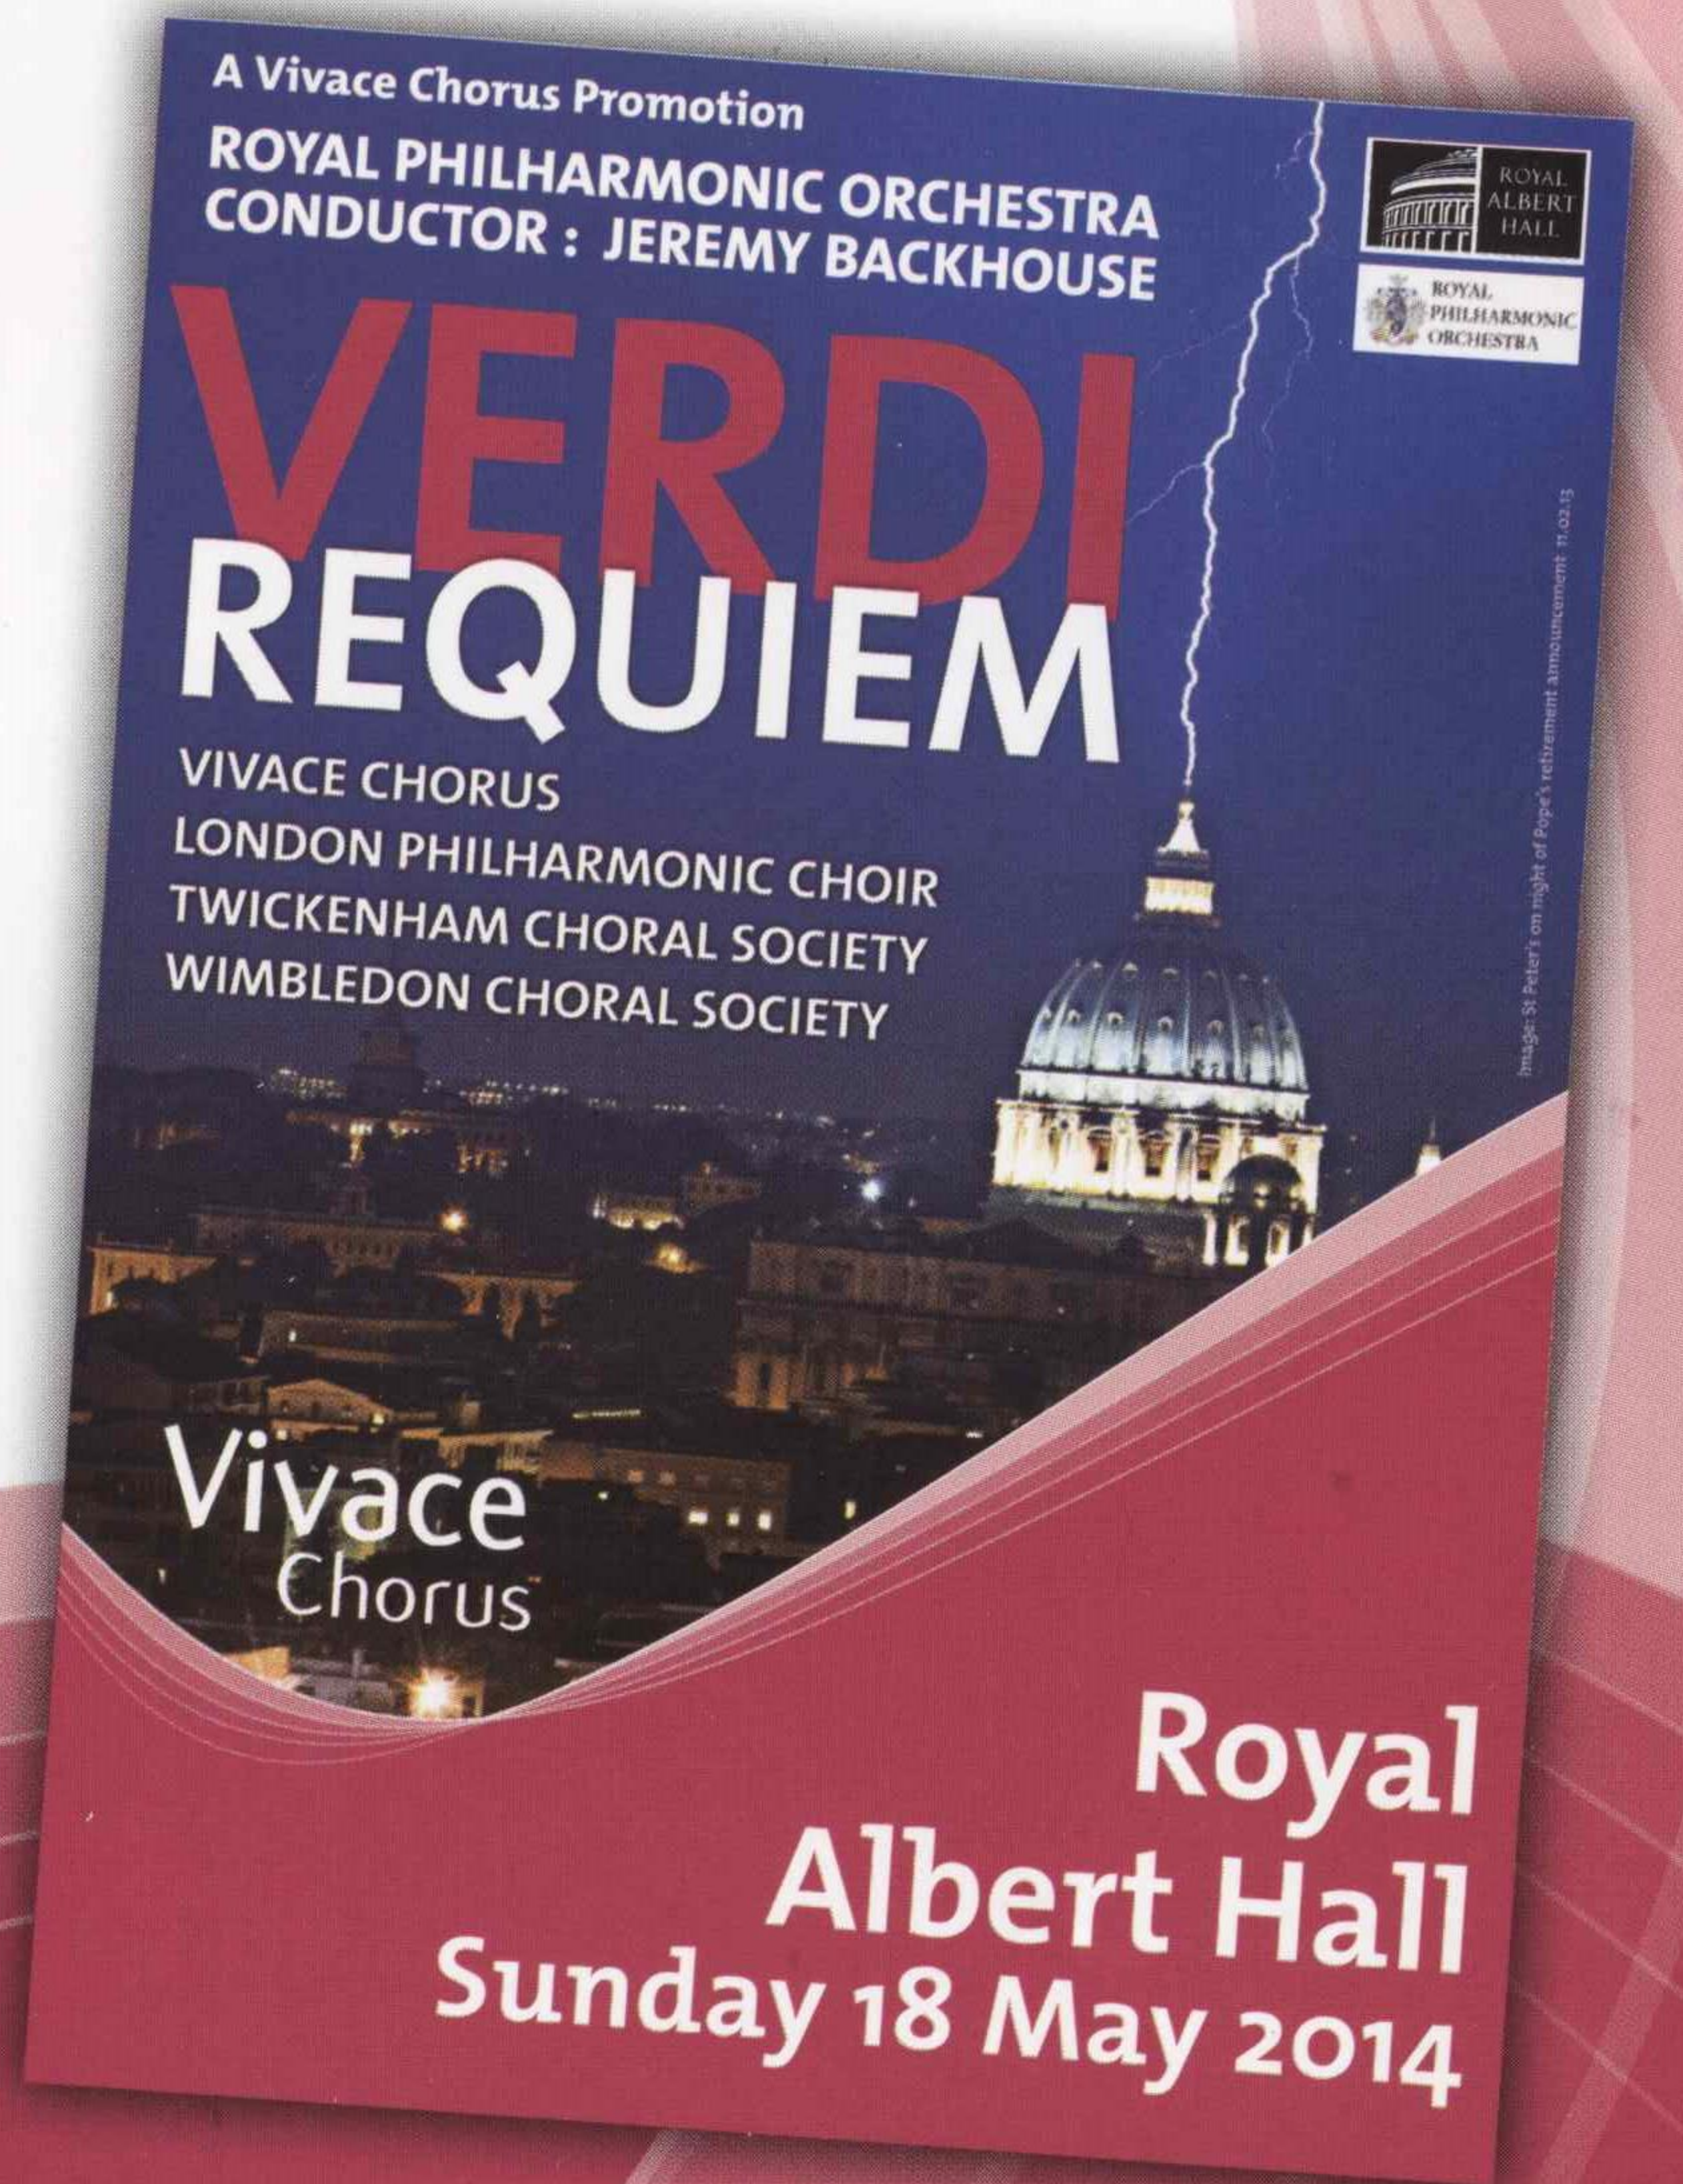

Rejoice in the Lamb is often programmed with Bernstein's Chichester Psalms, as both were commissioned by Walter Hussey – the Britten when he was Vicar of St Matthew's Northampton and the Bernstein when Dean of Chichester Cathedral. Sung in Hebrew, the piece has the energetic rhythmic qualities we associate with Bernstein's writing, along with joyful themes and plenty to keep you on your toes.

Join us in January for a day that's guaranteed to warm you up! Requirements to join the day are a love of singing and choral music, and £20! What you will receive in return is the hire of the scores, tea and/or coffee, homemade soup and a ploughman's, the company of others who enjoy singing and a day of music led by our Music Director, Jeremy Backhouse.

* Last date for receipt of applications 14th January but please note, only a limited number of places is available.
No refunds given after 8th December

The Vivace Chorus returns to the Royal Albert Hall, after the sell-out success of its Mahler 8 performance in 2011, with a grand-scale performance of the Verdi Requiem.

Once again, we are working with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra, and our massed choir of 400 voices includes the London Philharmonic Choir, Wimbledon Choral Society and Twickenham Choral Society. With these talented forces and excellent soloists under the baton of conductor Jeremy Backhouse, this Verdi Requiem will be a thrilling live musical experience.

"The sound the chorus made was electrifying and the whole symphony unforgettable." Audience member, Mahler 8, May 2011.

Join us for another wonderful performance in one of the best venues in the world. Tickets start at just £8 and are available now.
